"Taking Care of Yourself as the Dwelling Place of the Holy Spirit"

The Bible contains descriptive and direct teachings that are given to guide our life choices for our physical bodies which are the 'temple of the Holy Spirit.'

1 Corinthians 3:16-17, "Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple."

1 Corinthians 6:19-20, "Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, Whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So, glorify God in your body."

1 Corinthians 10:31, "So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God."

"SUSPECT A STROKE? BE FAST!"

BALANCE – Do you have sudden loss of balance or headaches?

EYES – Do you have blurry vision?

FACE – Does one side of your face droop?

ARM – Is one arm or leg weak or numb?

SPEECH – Do you have slurred or strange speech?

TIME – Call 9-1-1 immediately. Report the symptoms AND when you first noticed them as there are drugs that can be administered, BUT these are time-sensitive.

CORTISOL: FRIEND OR FOE?

Cortisol is a hormone your adrenal glands make and release. You may think of cortisol when it comes to STRESS, but it's an essential hormone that affects almost every organ and tissue in your body.

Cortisol is important to overall health in the following ways:

- it regulates how your body uses glucose (sugar) for energy,
- it decreases inflammation
- it regulates blood pressure
- it helps control your sleep / wake cycle

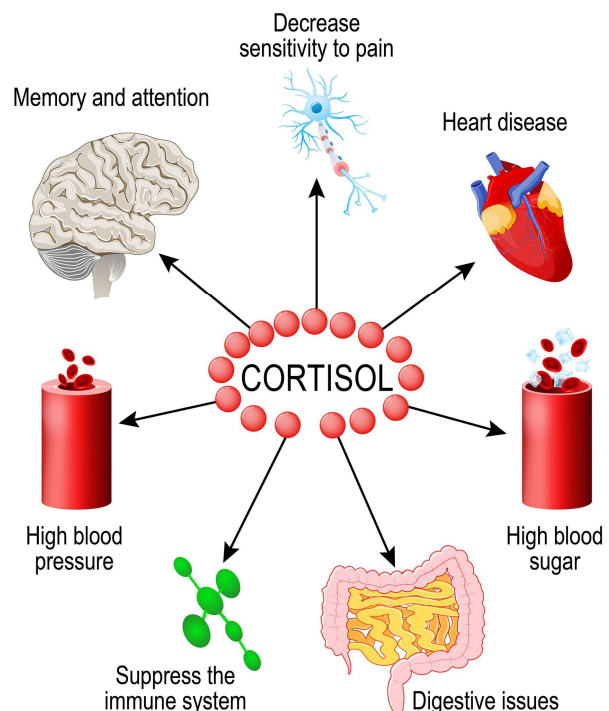

HIGH or LOW cortisol levels can be harmful to your health. Talk to your healthcare provider (primary doctor) if you're experiencing any of the following:

Symptoms of a HIGH cortisol level:

- ✓ unexplained weight gain (especially in the face or belly)
- ✓ unexplained muscle weakness in your upper arms and thighs
- ✓ unexplained high blood sugar and / or blood pressure

Symptoms of a LOW cortisol level:

- ✓ fatigue
- ✓ unintentional weight loss
- ✓ loss of appetite
- ✓ low blood pressure

“SMARTPHONES CONTINUE TO DEVASTATE THE MENTAL HEALTH OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE”

(an article by Thom S. Rainer, founder of Rainer Ministries)

When you hear that depression among teenage girls has increased by 145% and that suicide attempts have risen by 188%, it does more than catch your attention – it grips your soul. These are not dry statistics. These are lives. Sons and daughters. Grandchildren. Students. Members of our churches.

What happened?

The answer, in part, is as close as your pocket or right in your hand. It is called the ‘Smartphone.’

In 2007, Apple introduced the first iPhone. By 2010, selfies were a thing. By 2013, the smartphone was in the vast majority of American homes. Around that same time, we started seeing an alarming spike in mental health issues among adolescents – particularly girls.

THAT TIMELINE IS NOT INCIDENTAL.

Jonathan Haidt, in his sobering book “The Anxious Generation,” calls it “the great rewiring of childhood.” I believe he is right. The very nature of growing up [and communication] has completely changed, and the smartphone is a primary driver of that change!

Let us be clear: correlation does not always equal causation. But when rates of depression, anxiety, self-harm, and suicide all began to rise dramatically after the smartphone became mainstream, we are no longer dealing with coincidence—we are staring at causality in the face.

So, what exactly are smartphones doing to our kids?

1. They are Creating a Crisis of Comparison

Teenagers today are constantly connected – but chronically lonely. Through apps like Instagram, Snapchat, and TikTok, they are bombarded with curated, filtered versions of other people’s lives. They compare their unfiltered reality to everyone else’s highlight reel. And they always come up short.

Self-worth has become a numbers game: How many likes? How many followers? How many views? The phone becomes a mirror—and the reflection is never good enough.

Self-worth has become a numbers game: How many likes? How many followers? How many views? The phone becomes a mirror—and the reflection is never good enough.

2. They are Disrupting Sleep—and Health

Teenagers need sleep. A lot of it. But smartphones are stealing it minute by minute hour by hour – night after night.

The blue light emitted from screens suppresses melatonin, the hormone responsible for sleep. Add to that the dopamine-driven addiction of endless scrolling, and many teens are staying up well past midnight. They are wired, exhausted, and emotionally raw.

Sleep deprivation does not just make teens grumpy. It impairs memory, weakens emotional regulation, and fuels depression. It is hard to fight anxiety when your body and brain are running on empty.

3. They've Made Bullying Inescapable

Years ago, bullying ended when the school bell rang. Not anymore. Today, a child can be harassed 24/7 through their smartphone. The insults do not stop when they get home. They follow them into their bedroom and into the night.

Cyberbullying is relentless, often anonymous, and deeply harmful. Victims are at a higher risk for depression, anxiety, and suicide. And parents are often unaware if it is happening—until the damage is done.

Let us not sugarcoat this. The smartphone has turned many bedrooms into battlegrounds.

4. They have Contributed to a Youth Suicide Surge

It is one of the most tragic realities of our time: suicide rates among children and teens are rising.

Among girls ages 10–14, suicide increased by 167% from 2010 to 2020. Among boys, it rose by 91%.

Yes, some of this could be attributed to better reporting and a decrease in stigma. But that does not explain the rise in emergency room visits for self-harm—up 48% for boys and a staggering 188% for girls in that same decade.

Something real is happening. And something devastating.

5. They've Amplified Isolation

Despite their ability to "connect," smartphones have made many young people feel more isolated than ever.

Real conversations have been replaced with emojis. Eye contact has been replaced with screen time. Teenagers are lonelier, more disconnected, and more anxious—even while being more "plugged in."

Smartphones were supposed to unite us. But for many young people, they have become a prison with no walls and no curfew.

As a grandfather, I am heartbroken. As a church leader, I am burdened. And as a follower of Christ, I am hopeful—but only if we act.

Parents cannot be passive. Pastors cannot be silent. Churches must step into this moment, not with condemnation, but with compassion and wisdom.

Let us create smartphone-free zones. Let us invite our teenage children and grandchildren into real conversations, face-to-face community, and unfiltered love. Let us preach the gospel to a generation whose screens have taught them they are not enough and remind them that in Christ, they are fully known and fully loved.

The mental health of our young people is at stake, and the church must not look away. Our children – who are both the present and future of the church – are in crisis – a preventable and manageable crisis. Will you be part of the healing process?

LIFE IS FULL OF TRIALS AND TESTINGS

Life is full of good and perfect gifts from God our Father: marriage, confirmation, graduations, newborn babies, reconciliation ... and the list goes on and on.

We all know that life is also full of brokenness and struggles: cancer, addiction, dementia, death, and the unknowns just to name a few.

Many of us have had our lives impacted by what we have often called "the good, the bad, and the ugly" and they see to come all at once or in short bursts.

How do we get by in times of trial, testing, and all the unknowns?

We can't 'get by' during any time of our life on Earth without a growing relationship with God Who is the only way to lasting peace.

Without His daily presence and the powerful work of the Holy Spirit Who comforts us, guides us, calms us, and give us words to pray, we would be just as lost as so many people we see who do not have a relationship with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

In difficult times we lean on the Triune God. In good times we give thanks to the Triune God. In all things we celebrate our relationship with the Triune God.

Psalm 121:1-2, "I lift up my eyes to the hills. Where does my help come from? My help comes from the Lord, Who made the heavens and the earth."

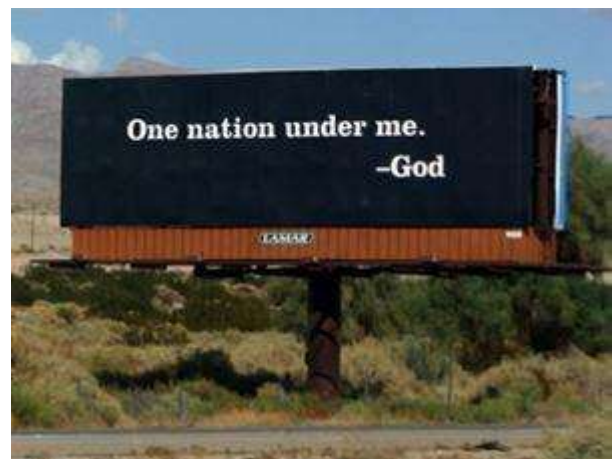

James 1 (selected verses), "Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness ... Blessed is the one who remains steadfast under trial ... every good and perfect gift is from above."

SPIRITUAL MESSAGES NEEDED FOR DIGITAL BILLBOARD

Earlier this year the Faith Endowment Committee approved a grant for a four week rental of the digital billboard on the south side of Highway 41 for displaying daily spiritual messages which will be visible to everyone traveling into Marinette. The rental period will be from November 30 through December 27, 2025.

Our church's vision statement is "As we GROW in Christ's Love and the Word, we will SHARE Christ's Love with the World". The purpose of the billboard messages is not to increase our church membership count but rather to share the wonderful message of God's saving grace to as many people as possible.

Creativity plays a vital role in the success of billboard effectiveness. A well-designed billboard that captures attention and conveys a clear, compelling message can leave a lasting impression. Short messages such as the following are good examples of effective billboard displays:

We are asking everyone to submit their ideas for short messages to be displayed on the billboard. Write your ideas on a piece of paper and place them in mailbox # 160. Selected messages will be designed and then sent electronically via a software application provided by Jones Sign Company. If anyone has a question, please speak with Keith Mueller. We can have the message change daily which allows us the opportunity to have up to 28 different messages, so get those creative juices flowing!

2025 VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL REVISITED

The Board of Education sponsored our Vacation Bible School on Sunday, August 3rd to Thursday, August 7th for children 3 years old to 5th Grade. Michael Evancheck, Matt McCoy and Lizzie McCoy helped make it a big success by helping as Crew Leaders for the children who attended the classes each day.

The theme for this year's program was "TRUE NORTH – Trusting Jesus in a Wild World." We sang True North songs, played games, ate Tundra Treats, shared God Sightings and learned about Jesus.

DAY 1 – We met Bible Memory Buddy Ponder the otter & learned that WHEN WE WONDER WE CAN TRUST JESUS. Our Sticky Scripture was Matt. 3: 11-16 – about John preparing the way by baptizing Jesus. We wondered what God's voice sounded like when He announced that Jesus is His son. This means that we can trust Jesus because we know, from the Father, that he is God. Then, we investigated this with magnets at the Imagination Station & made a compass showing that Jesus always points us in the right direction

DAY 2 – Everyone met Bible Memory Buddy Clawdia the crab & learned that WHEN WE FEEL ALONE WE CAN TRUST JESUS. Sticky Scripture Matt. 11:28 said, "Come to me all who are weary and carry heavy burdens and I will give you rest." Our Bible story focused on the lost sheep (Matt. 18:12-14) showing that we do not need to be afraid, when alone, because Jesus loves and cares for us. Then, we created crystals at the Imagination Station which, like snowflakes, demonstrates that we are made unique in His image.

DAY 3 – Our crew met Bible Memory Buddy Kody the bear & learned that WHEN WE FEEL POWERLESS WE CAN TRUST JESUS. Sticky Scripture Matt. 14:27 says, “Don’t be afraid ...take courage, I am here.” Our Bible story was about the faith of the powerful Roman Centurion. He actually came to our class and told us that he was powerless to heal his sick servant. But “With just a word,” he said, “Jesus healed my servant! Now that’s power!” Then, we discovered the secrets of majestic mountains & the power that we have in Jesus at the Imagination Station.

DAY 4 – We met Bible Memory Buddy Earnest the eagle & learned that WHEN WE NEED HOPE WE CAN TRUST JESUS. Sticky Scripture Matt.12:21says,”And his name will be the hope of all the world.” The Bible story told about Jesus dying and coming back to life in Matt.26:47 – 28:8. We tried to share Jesus’ pain by holding ice cubes in our hands as the teacher read the story. It was fun at first, but then it started to sting & we had to stop before the story finished. We saw that when things hurt, we can lose hope. But, when Jesus arose from the dead, hopelessness became hope when we examined God’s light show (the northern lights) in the dark at the Imagination Station.

DAY 5 – Everyone met Bible Memory Buddy Bruce the moose & learned that WHEN WE NEED HELP WE CAN TRUST JESUS. Sticky Scripture Matt. 28:20 says, “I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” The Bible story focused on Jesus’ command to the early believers to “make disciples of all nations.” This was hard to do because people in the world speak different languages. But then, on Pentecost, Jesus sent The Holy Spirit to give his friends the ability to share the good news of the Gospel in different languages so that over 3,000 people believed. The children then saw how God’s glaciers provide fresh water & used Polar Pencils to remember how the earth gets to cool off at the Imagination Station.

We want to thank Laura Isaacson, Devon Scudari, Michele Krueger, Jeff Durocher and Jim Zill for teaching the VBS classes along with Marianne Evancheck who served & made the “themed message” treats with help from bakers Jacquie Voeks and Karen & Pastor Steve Haag (s’mores, bearpaw cookies & moose cupcakes). We also want to thank Bob Charlesworth, Jeff Durocher & Dan Everson who set up and took down the backdrops and yard sign after the program.

Our most “Heartfelt Thanks and Appreciation” goes out to Lois Zill for volunteering to direct and participate in the VBS program and to Danielle Moon for her faithful help as Assistant Director. God’s blessings to all of you!

"As we GROW in Christ's Love and the Word, we will SHARE Christ's Love with the World."

BECOMING AN “ELDER”

Have you ever thought about becoming an “Elder” here at Faith? or what is required of an elder? how much time does it take up? Well let me help with some of the questions or “misconceptions”. First of all, you do NOT need to be asked to be a member of the Board of Elders – though every new member must be approved by the existing board members per our Constitution here at Faith. If becoming an elder is something you have thought about or want more information about, you can talk with any one of the existing members or simply check the box on your Time and Talents sheet later this year. Second, not everyone is made the same way so while some are better at certain aspects of the responsibilities, others may be better at other aspects – we all work together to ensure that the spiritual needs of the congregation are met.

The Leadership of The Church

Some individuals in the past have thought that they need to be able to conduct a service or deliver a sermon in those “emergency” situations that arise now and then – we are all good at something but not all good at the same things which, again, is why we work together as a team to accomplish what needs to be done! In the past months you’ve heard or read about the “Elder Assistant” that we have been promoting and this is another excellent path to learning what it is we do on Sunday’s. If you have an interest or just a question or two, please contact any one of us as we are always there to assist. There is currently one open position on the board and I know there are more than a few men in our congregation more than capable of “doing what we do”. Being an elder is a very rewarding experience allowing each member to work closely with the Pastor and members of the congregation to maintain a happy, healthy, and very spiritual church life here at Faith.

In HIS service,
The members of the Board of Elders

faithful

"Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found faithful" (1 Cor. 4:2).

What is the standard to which a steward is held? Ask the average person, and they might talk about percentages, tithes, and commitments. Too often, the default mode of measuring stewards is by how much and how frequently they give. This is not helpful. Measuring activity without any connection to baptismal identity is a recipe for disaster. It can either breed a sense of superiority and self-righteousness or create a culture of scarcity and despair. Neither outcome is godly or helpful.

This standard reflects the stewardship portrayed in the Gospels where Jesus entrusts varying amounts, each according to ability.

The commended stewards were recognized for their faithfulness in their vocation, not the amounts they managed. Conversely, the condemned stewards were not castigated for their lack of performance but for their lack of faithfulness.

This is not to say that stewardship should be regarded as "no big deal." St. Paul, within his discussion of the ministry to which he has been called, sets the standard of accountability for the steward: faithfulness. This removes any sense of superiority or self-righteousness and dispels scarcity and despair. When a steward manages what the Lord has entrusted to them — resources and all aspects of life — for God's purposes, the focus is not on how much or how frequently they give.

What does this mean for the steward in the pew? The Lord has entrusted you with various things. Luther captures them in his explanation of the First Article of the Apostles' Creed and the Fourth Petition of the Lord's Prayer. The familiar couplets of food and drink, house and home, spouse and children, land, animals and all possessions are the Lord's, and He has entrusted them to you for His purpose. This trust brings an active realization of thanksgiving.

The Fourth Petition:

Give us this day our daily bread

What does this mean? God gives daily bread indeed without our prayer also to all the wicked; but we pray in this petition that He would lead us to know it, and receive our daily bread with thanksgiving.

What then is meant by daily bread? Everything that belongs to the support and wants of the body, such as food, drink, clothing, shoes, house, home, field, cattle, money, goods, a pious spouse, pious children, pious servants, pious and faithful rulers, good government, good wealth, peace, health, discipline, honor, good friends, faithful neighbors, and the like.

This active thanksgiving is our stewardship. It can be distilled into two questions that the steward regularly needs to answer:

1. How has God blessed me?
2. How is He calling me to respond

The first question is quite simple to answer: if the Lord has entrusted something to you, it is a blessing. This blessing is for God's glory and the benefit of your neighbor. The second question is more challenging to measure; it is not about percentages and charts. Instead, it is about a life of thanksgiving that flows from the mercies of God revealed in Jesus Christ. This thanksgiving starts at and flows from the cross and the empty tomb. Our stewardship of the Gospel drives our stewardship of everything else.

The standard, then, is faithfulness. Faithfulness flows from eyes focused on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith. It does not come from our efforts but through the working of the Holy Spirit in our lives, through Word and Sacrament. It begins at the altar in the Divine Service but extends into the world — from hearth and home to workplace and classroom, from commerce to leisure. The mercy of God, freely given in Jesus, leads us to demonstrate a faithfulness that reveals to others the same mercy we have received in Jesus.

This faithfulness cannot be measured empirically. It is simply allowing the Holy Spirit to work in and through us for the glory of God and the benefit of our neighbor. Weekly. Daily. Faithfully.

ADDRESS CHANGES

August 2025 Steingraber CHRONICLES

Greetings in Christ,

Our travels in July left the family refreshed from spending time with family and friends.

Lori enjoyed her time in Waco, Texas learning from the REFIT instructors and having daily times of fellowship with Christian brothers and sisters from around the country and the world!

Steve and Timmy were able to have solo Daddy/son time, which was needed after a busy season at the Seminary.

David had a blast at the National Youth Gathering in New Orleans....and then came home and slept much of the next week!

Steve was installed as the vicar at Immanuel Lutheran Church and School in St. Charles Missouri on August 3rd at the 8am service.

St. Charles is about a half hour from the Seminary, so we will be able to keep our same apartment and the boys and Lori will keep their same schools. The installation weekend was extra special as Lori got to play the organ and Steve's dad, Wayne, came down from Wisconsin and played the trumpet on a few hymns. We loved the welcome we received from the members and school families at Immanuel, St. Charles!

Lori is now moving into teacher workdays at Immanuel-Olivette. She is looking forward to getting her classroom reset and starting a new school year.

The boys will also be returning to school soon. David will be a sophomore at Lutheran South High School and is looking forward to band and seeing his friends again. Timmy is going into 6th grade at Immanuel-Olivette and will be running cross-country this fall. He has been enjoying running around campus all summer with friends, but that time will soon be replaced by days at school!

Please keep the students and families of both seminaries in your prayers as a new academic year starts again in the fall.

Thank you for the prayers and/or support you have given during this time of learning for the whole family. We appreciate you all!

Peace and Love in Christ,

The Steingrabers

FAITH LUTHERAN PRESCHOOL UPDATES

What's YOUR favorite animal? (draw or print out an animal to share with the preschoolers)

Marianne and I are excited about the start of the school year. Our first day is September 2nd for 3-year-old preschool and September 3rd for 4-year-old preschool. We are ready to start this school year with laughter of little children (and teachers), endless energy, new beginnings, and the joy of God's love for us as we explore the world he created.

Our first few bible lessons are about God's creation. It is so exciting to be able to share the love God had as he created man and woman on that 6th day of creation. We will then learn and get to be excited about all things on this earth the Lord created.

I personally can't wait to hear what everyone's favorite animal is. If you get a chance, draw or print out your favorite animal so we can show the preschoolers. We can then make a graph to see how many people like the same or different animal. Bring your picture to church and put them in the church mailbox 184 or email them to flpmarinette@gmail.com

My (Ms. Kat's) favorite animal is a lion. Ms. Marianne loves all animals, but especially cats!

Serving the Lord in the Dominican Republic

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ at Faith Lutheran Church,

Thank you for your monthly gifts of $110 to support God's work through us in LCMS missions in the Dominican Republic. We are so grateful to be able to serve in this joyful ministry and appreciate the people such as you who make it possible.

"As we GROW in Christ's Love and the Word, we will SHARE Christ's Love with the World."

We continue to see Bible classes, worship services and weekly evangelism calls bearing fruit. The Seminary and other Lutheran school classes are on summer break and will resume at the end of August.

The five mission congregations each have their own outreach in the form of preaching stations, as well as weekly community visits made by congregation pastors, members, seminary field workers and local deaconesses. Sometimes it seems as if the work grows so fast that we will not be able to keep up with it all. But God is faithful and provides what is needed according to His perfect timing. We do pray that God will send more workers to the field here in Latin America!

Thank you for your prayers in addition to your support and encouragement.

Love in Christ,

Deaconess Cheryl and Pastor Jonathan Naumann

PRAYER

God, protect Jonathan and Cheryl as they travel and do the work You have created for them to do. Increase the faith of those they serve and provide people in the U.S. who will partner with them and support them. In Jesus name we pray, Amen.
